

JUNIOR OFFICER/ CIVIL SERVANT SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

2010 U.S.P.H.S. Scientific and Training Symposium
May 24-27, 2010, San Diego (CA) Sheraton Marina

Who qualifies

To qualify an individual:

- Must be of pay grade O-3 or below (Ensign, LTJG, LT) or the civil service equivalent GS 10/11 or below
- Must certify in writing that he/she has requested funding from his/her agency and been turned down

An officer/civil servant will be deemed ineligible for the scholarship if:

- His or her agency indicates that they will pay for the registration; or
- An officer personally pays by either credit card or check prior to notification of a decision on the scholarship award. No refunds will be made. Any applicant who applies for a scholarship and is turned down will have the option of paying for a registration at the Early Bird rate.

In the event funding is not available to award scholarships to all applicants, priority will be given to:

- Health and Human Services employees and the Federal agencies where commissioned officers serve;
- First time applicants;
- Officers/civil servants presenting an abstract at the annual meeting;
- Officers/civil servants who serve on a COA/COF committee; and
- Officers/civil servants in direct public health-related positions.
