

2010 USPHS Scientific and Training Symposium Student Scholarship Guidelines

Qualified applicants may be approved to receive a Student Scholarship to attend the 2010 USPHS Scientific and Training Symposium, which will be held in San Diego, CA from May 24 - 27, 2010.

The scholarship will allow students to attend all educational sessions but does not cover meals or related costs such as travel, housing, etc. Meal tickets can be purchased separately.

To qualify an individual must be engaged in a full-time program of study in a related field at an accredited college or university. Scholarships are intended for undergraduate and graduate students interested in a career in public health.

All applications are subject to final review and approval by the Symposium organizers. However, applicants should assume they have been approved unless they are contacted and told otherwise.

An individual will be deemed ineligible for the scholarship if he or she pays by either credit card or check to attend the symposium. No refunds will be made.
